

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Ryan HART

They say that beauty is in the eye of the beholder; that being said, I find beauty in recreating what is, not what is not. I do not know the proper terminology for my style of art, but photo-realism seems to be appropriate.

It is said that a picture speaks a thousand words, while a picture is a moment in time that is "snapped" in a moment. As I recreate these moments captured they become works of art that have numerous hours behind their creation. And I enjoy the challenge of taking a pencil to paper and trying to make the finished product look as real as possible.

Please edit your Artist Statement to fit the space provided.