Artist Name: Dineane Ducharme "The Texan Ducharme"

I have been locked away from the free world for eight years now. Self expression and individuality is completely lost once you find yourself behind the walls, findind a positive outlet can be very difficult.

I would create art home in the FREE WORLD. It was a posttive way to release pain and work through feellings. I couldn't part with my art and it hung on every wall. Now itsits in a storage unit waiting for me.

Finding PCAP has helped me grow aand break the block allowing me to share my artwork with others. I still create my art with alot of emotions and use it to work through many feelings. I love to share my ideas and art with others now. This is my 2nd year, I hope to be home soon.

I would love to keep sharing my artwork with the FREE WORLD.

Thank you to everyone for all your loving support.

The Texan"
