Artist Name: RADU MUNTEAN

My name is Radu, and I am an ~~first~~ immigrant from Romania. I came to America with my mind set on success, but life turned out differently. My innital success turned to a complete shock to my system when I come to prison and lost all of my previous identity.

This crisis that followed opened my eyes to things I have never payed any mind to, such as philosophy, poetry and art. It opened my eyes to the constant struggles that happen behind the scens, such as people secretly battling depression and other spiritual disorders.

All of that is what goes into my paintings and drawings. They are meant to tell a story that often words just simply cannot tell.

The space and economic constraints of prison are what eventualy guided me towards watercolor. Then I discovered the Inkpen, so thiose two are my favorite materials at the moment. I dream of using oils at one point, but till then it's Ink and watercolor on watercolor paper.

Thank you for taking the time to learn about my process and myself.
