

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Chenburger

I paint because it is a form of expression, without having to speak out loud. I also enjoy painting because it is calm and relaxing, and quiet time is weird in prison. I can paint all day, everyday. I am the most comfortable when I am covered in paint, everything from my shoes to my head has paint on it at any given time of the day. I like to paint rooms and offices too, covering up the old making it new again is like getting a new canvas, you get to add yourself to it and make it yours.
