The Salty Old Sea Dog

I love positive feedback. That's cool, awesome, beautiful or "bad-ass" drives me to draw more. I pull and get my inspiration from the ideas of others. We're all so imaginative. It's a challenge to capture emotion so whenever I can, I try. It takes hundreds of pages to tell a story, but sometimes one drawing can tell the same story with one sheet of paper. I'm not a pro or a top notch artist... I only hope I can inspire others as they've inspired me.
