

Kary the Kranky Kraken

Kary feels lonely & misunderstood. People keep calling him a monster & try to kill him. He gets blamed for eating sailors. This is the farthest thing from the truth because he's a "Woodaterian". He hates the taste of blood! But on the other tentacle, he does love the taste of wood. He also likes giving hugs. If you ask him, he gives the BEST hugs! If you need proof, just ask his little friend, Inky. Inky is a giant squid. Inky knows how nice Kary is. And if you won't believe Inky, just give Kary a little squeeze. You just might understand, that he really is just a loveable guy.
