

Artist Name: R. Dennis

I'm like you, a living, breathing soul. I'm just in a dark place in search of light. Art to me is light, joy, and a way to feel alive.

I've enjoyed every piece of art work I've ever worked on, I have a smile on my face when I'm able to create a new piece of art.

I've come a long way from pencil drawings to colored pencil drawings to then paint and watercolor. I'm not yet a great artist but I'm mastering and growing and getting better each year. My next step will be writing short stories.

I'm very thankful to P.C.A.P. and all the selfless work they do for us, it's much more than you or I see and I do appreciate them all.

I hope you get joy and a smile out of the shapes and colors and ideas of my art work. I'm so blessed to have this opportunity to share with you.
