

Artist Name: Thomas Babb

One reason that I do art is to give something to my family. It is painful to be away from them and not to be able to do anything for them or to help them. A lot of guilt and shame goes along with doing this time. Another reason I do art is to get my mind out of here. I like landscapes, old buildings and wildlife. I can sometimes imagine myself being at places I draw. I saw this picture over 10 years ago in a magazine and tore it out and saved it. I didn't do any drawing or artwork back then. I just liked the picture. Just to look at it now and then. A lot of terrible things happen in prison. A lot of things happen to our families when we are stuck in here. Art is one way of leaving for a little while. I give thanks to God the Father of my Lord Jesus Christ for all the blessings, forgiveness, love and talents He has given me. The name of this place is Paxtons Old Sawmill in the State of Massachusetts. I welcome comments or questions about myself or art ~~as I am quite lonely.~~ 😊
