

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Jermaine & I Shaw

Art has been a safe space, and a motivational force of change in our worlds, past, present, and future. These pieces ~~show~~ <sup>shed</sup> light on part of the anatomy of women. Pulling away from the bias and the misogynistic views of America and those who believe control of a woman's body is their choice and not that of the woman. We must understand that life comes from a woman and she alone should be responsible for how and when she creates life. Don't just lust for her body but understand her, and her body on a level never before.
