

Artist Name: Charles Burns / C.B

I was born with a learning disability and do not read and write as well as other. But I have been blessed with the skills to make art. I believe ^{god} gave us all some way to communicate and express our feeling. It does not always have to be with words. I feel art speaks louder then any word ever have for me! thank you for taking time to see my art work.