

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Corey Zentner

When I was younger I was always told that I had artistic talent but I didn't believe in myself and never applied myself to it. Now that I have more time to myself to learn new things I realized that I can do a lot of things if I just apply myself. I struggled with shading, contrasts, and vantage points in my drawings but the more I worked at it the easier it became. I have always been into landscapes because nature is always breath taking to me and I have always wanted to sit on top of a mountain and draw what I see. This will be my last year in PCAP because I will be home next year so it is kind of bitter sweet for me. This is my best drawing I have done and I am very proud of it so I hope you enjoy it as much as I did. Thank you for letting me participate in PCAP, this program means a lot to guys in prison and if there is anything I can do to help this program when I get out I would be honored.
