

Rita Walker

542-20

The Hearth

I've always had a passion to design. I get my inspiration from everywhere; nature, people, life, my religion and more. Creating things puts me in a meditative state and keeps me at peace with myself and the world around me.

This piece is called "The Hearth." It ~~represents~~ represents family and love.