

Artist Statement — 29th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: _____

I am serving a 64 year sentence, I met someone and it seems like now everyone wants to watch my life unfold so love must be amazing.

Happiness is subjective. No matter what someone always has it ~~good~~^{worse}, so I use the snake to show the darkness as it bites the world. The bird the squid and the flower show things still live after one thing dies and the world despite it's darkness still has a lot of things to be happy for...