I started my art career a few years ago when I was in the Army. On my off time I had nothing to do. So I picked up some metal and a welder and went to work building sculptures for the guys, they loved them. When I came to prison I didn't have access to those things so I tried to draw. Never having drawn anything before I was pretty lousy but I kept trying. These pieces are after I have been drawing for 4 months. with a lot of help from other inmates I think I will be a whole lot better when I am released.
