

Artist Name: Oz, Ozzie,

• If I had 0.05 cents per Dot on this Owl picture I'd be handsomely Rich! LOL.

• I choose to make Art to take away my Pain of missing "Home" or my loved ones, especially Mama Bear, she is the sweetest lady on Earth & would give her "last" to anybody who needed it more than her.

• This Owl to me says life is Not certain but Death is. We need to cherish what & who we have before You Cant

• The process was, using a Grid I doubled the size of this owl, tweaked it to my liking, then painstakingly put all lines down, then pencil then Ink pen then more pencil, then more lines then finally mounted the finished piece & Viola! Magic, I really surprise myself I just don't know how I've ever learned this.

• I have several "Artistic choices" & "Styles". Choices depend on what I'm doing, who it's for etc., then my style I have to say came from a man who used to AMAZE me with his Talents. I chose to use his style, His name is Bryan Goble from Coldwater Mi. I met him at Carson City, Level 1 in 2007,<sup>12</sup> I was in the same "cube" & he showed me

Alot Visually. I left and have never seen or heard from him but I owe alot to him for just taking the time to show me. I'll never forget it.

o What I hope "onlookers" take away from my work? Inspiration. I have so many people who say Dang I wish I could do that, YOU CAN! Aint nothing to it but to do it, dont give up, pay attention to the details, put your art up, come back in a day or 2 for a fresh look you'll advance very quickly with these suggestions, Have fun do what you want. It is getting harder & harder to do ART in prison, for example I ordered a Book called Tattoo Sourcebook, It is gigantic & full of completed-in color Art work, but because it is called "Tattoo" Sourcebook it is rejected & not allowed because they say it is a threat to the good order of the facility. I wish I could just have that book, I'd be content! I'd draw forever!

Your friend forever
