

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Reese W. Maxey

I choose to make art because I love to draw what I am feeling. My first piece is about how I felt when I first got locked up which I felt alone like I had nobody to connect with. My second piece is about the anger I feel on a day to day basis. The process was sort of easy, it just came to me in the moment. I hope others will feel the way I felt while I have been serving my 2-yr sentence.
