

Earth Quake Jake

341-20

Light House / Breakable Bank

Really all I can say is working on projects has always been hard for me. I'm very impulsive and have trouble with long term goals and it took around 4 months for me to finish. Building this light house / Bank help me realize art can help me mentally and spiritually art has occupied my mind from negative thoughts and activities and has brought great peace to my life in prison!