

Dear Anybody

Dear anybody

I hope this letter finds you well

Its sad to say

I'm still in my shell.

Answer me this,

why am I so alone?

I feel emptiness in my heart

a void in my mind

I sleep alone

in this bed of mine

I have no friends

Is that how my story ends?

Anybody, can you relate?

I'm suffocating on my eternal hate

Anybody, if you're there

I tried to call your phone

but I realized

the only number I had was my own.

Anybody I'm sure

I could love you in time.

I have one heart and for now its mine

Anybody have you talked to somebody lately?

Somebody would be nice

If only treated right

well thats my letter

So far, now

good night.

Sincerely,

Mr. White

P.S. if you ever feel alone

Just know I'm here

and you're not alone

But thats all for Now

Farewell,

Be kind.
