

Artist Name: Marcus Harrisca

I've been drawing all of my life and it's truly been a blessing. My uncle James Taylor helped mold me into an artist. He was the best I ever knew, so I wanted to do the things he did, but I couldn't, so I had to come up with my own style and everything.

All my drawings are a reflection of my soul and a lot of the things I've been thru. I do a lot of graphite pictures I love it, I prefer Tan paper over white but it all works the same most times. Emotionally I'm in love with what I do, it helps with the time and my mental. So when I draw it's from the heart, it's not always about money. I like the attention art brings and the people you meet and the stories behind the scenes of an artist. The life and times of a Half Blood Prince. Thank You for allowing me this chance to express myself to the world and You.
