Eye of the Beholder - Animals Speak Louder than Words

I took some elective art classes in school 35 yrs ago.

I did not start to draw again until coming to prison 5 yrs ago.

I love to draw and even though I am in prison, I feel "free" when I am creating.

'Eye of the Beholder' 'Animals speak louder
than words'

Symbolizes an unspoken Beauty seen differently by each individual.

The love of animals, Home.
