

Artist Statement — 29th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: _____

Over the years of doing time, I never lost my ability to see the beauty of the world around me. I have learned many different styles of art over the years and find it fun to try new fields. I never like to chase a dollar just to have a chance to make a moment of joy in a person's life. So I now go through life looking for a chance to bless someone. Life is hard enough and the world has gotten too fast to enjoy the moments that make great memories in our lives.
