

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Dustin Hathcock

I am super artistic and love doing anything art drawing being my main thing ive been doing a lot of portraits and realism but I am leaning into Newschool art and Graffiti art because I love the colors and characters I can come up with.

But my black and white drawings are amazing and im doing nothing but improving daily on all the different areas. I want to be versatile. So the Portrait "love" I did is a freinds girlfreind a mutual freind of mine im working on more of my own family and freinds also the painting abandoned was my first painting and the others show off my color skills and creativity. Daily things affect my art. I hope you enjoy it as much as I do Thanks
