

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Richard L. Gillis III

I want others to see, through my art, that though we may be in prison, honor and nobility can still be found in us. That we aren't these terrible monsters that the media portray us to be. That we still have so much more to contribute to society at large.

Please edit your Artist Statement to fit the space provided.