

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Denzel Simmons 0795035

My art comes from emotional views for those in my life. As we can become so focus on one thing in life that we don't connect the dots to see the hidden picture emerging as life lessons. It's called fast life for a reason, because we blink and it's over. Life should be lived like a wine tasting. Because when we focus on what we don't have, we neglect what we do have. Those who live with regret knows it's true.
