PCAP Miniatures 2021 Exhibit

Artist Name: Norman Munn

I can't believe that this is 2021 already. I have been doing the PCAP Exhibits for 7 years. It has been a journey. One that I have enjoyed. Everyone at PCAP has been great to me throughout the years. Giving me encouragement and helpful suggestions along the way. Helping me to improve my drawings. PCAP has been a tremendous asset to those of us incarcerated. Their selflessness to put on these shows and to visit us here in prison is greatly appreciated by many. Through the Creative Arts Project I have learned more about myself which has led to improved drawings, better choices in life, more confidence, and to socialize with others about Art. PCAP is more than art it is like salve to a wound. By keeping some of my older drawings and reviewing them from time to time. I am able to see how my life was in chaos in the beginning and through the years how order has been established. Each Artist tells a story through his drawings and I am no different. My story happens to be about my life's journey. Thank You to everyone at PCAP you have helped people beyond mere art. But in life also. It takes someone special to help others like that. and I am extremely grateful for your dedication and help that I have received over the years. God Bless You All.
