

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Susan Brown Title: Amidst it All Developed
Helen C. FAITH

I thank God for Visions. The visions I am given are so very valuable and keep me in alignment, for me; Visions are God's investments from above for me to produce which are to touch others all around the world. Helen C. Faith is no different I pray she inspires you to really think. Think about what time it is, what time is it in your life... perhaps its time to;

Do Different

learn more

reach farther

grow Deeper

strive for more

Think Better

Love courageously

give generously

But most of All Be Better

To All of my children Go get the world! why? because you CAN. I love you.

IF INTERESTED IN PURCHASING "WHAT TIME IS IT?"

PLEASE WRITE TO THE ARTIST.

Please edit your Artist Statement to the space provided.

The Art Of Susan is a website created to exhibit designer originals by Eccentric Artist Susan Brown. For your viewing pleasure there are exciting displays of spectacular artwork, intriguing artist statements as well as personal incite to what is most precious to her.

For a heartfelt adventure, take a good look at the Prison Lives Matter tab. It is touching incite to what prisoners have to say about life behind bars in way of poems, stories and personal expressions.

Please know that submissions are very much welcomed and encouraged. So join us in showing the world what our life is like. We look forward to your comments. See you on the site. THANK YOUR!!!

The Art Of Susan is a website created to exhibit designer originals by Eccentric Artist Susan Brown. For your viewing pleasure there are exciting displays of spectacular artwork, intriguing artist statements as well as personal incite to what is most precious to her.

For a heartfelt adventure, take a good look at the Prison Lives Matter tab. It is touching incite to what prisoners have to say about life behind bars in way of poems, stories and personal expressions.

Please know that submissions are very much welcomed and encouraged. So join us in showing the world what our life is like. We look forward to your comments. See you on the site. THANK YOU!!!

The Art Of Susan is a website created to exhibit designer originals by Eccentric Artist Susan Brown. For your viewing pleasure there are exciting displays of spectacular artwork, intriguing artist statements as well as personal incite to what is most precious to her.

For a heartfelt adventure, take a good look at the Prison Lives Matter tab. It is touching incite to what prisoners have to say about life behind bars in way of poems, stories and personal expressions.

Please know that submissions are very much welcomed and encouraged. So join us in showing the world what our life is like. We look forward to your comments. See you on the site. THANK YOU!!!

The Art Of Susan is a website created to exhibit designer originals by Eccentric Artist Susan Brown. For your viewing pleasure there are exciting displays of spectacular artwork, intriguing artist statements as well as personal incite to what is most precious to her.

For a heartfelt adventure, take a good look at the Prison Lives Matter tab. It is touching incite to what prisoners have to say about life behind bars in way of poems, stories and personal expressions.

Please know that submissions are very much welcomed and encouraged. So join us in showing the world what our life is like. We look forward to your comments. See you on the site. THANK YOU!!!

These are three collaborations done
specifically for PCAP

Nights I imagined

This is a third collaborative work that we decided to donate to PCAAP. In doing so we hope it will inspire a new category

Donated! by Susan Brow and P. Bennett

The Eyes of The Soul Still Sees.

This is a collaborative work that we decided to donate to PCAP. In doing so we hope it will inspire a new category.

Donated! by Susan Brown & D. Smith

Tasty Beauty

This is a second collaborative work that we decided to donate to PCAP. In doing so we hope it will inspire a new category

Donated! by Susan Brown and H. Hiebbler

Little Bloom of My Love

Little Bloom ~~of~~ Love of my

may your roots grow deep in the mist of everything going on may you aspire to fly, Always stopping to Smell the Beauty that Blooms, for each and every moment is precious.

Seven hummingbirds compliment an apple blossom tree with nine risen yet deeply embeddel roots representing the fruits of the spirit.

Now be what you were created to be! YOU.