

Artist Name: STAFNIE

It's been a really hard year.
Fear, challenges, stress, you name it!
I got through by focusing on my art projects.
Although nothing came out the way that I hoped it would. I could not give in or give up. Even if showing up meant not getting the odds and odds I work for.
I know learning to face pressure is just as important as seeking success. I may not always get the success we striving for in participating in PCA. But I will always show up no matter what.
Thank you all for showing up. 🙏
