

Artist Statement 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Shawn Sinner

This was one of my first paintings.

The idea behind it is that no matter what comes about in this life time you are & will be exactly who you are sapsae to be. Stones may cause a ripple effect but the current still flows.

Every action has a equal & opposite re-action.

They tried to bury you but they didnt know you are a seed. From the most dismal beginnings to the most beautiful endings you was there all along.

Grow through the struggle & enjoy the majestic beauty that shines for you all along.
