

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Brittani Grabon

this is my first time switching media and painting w/ acrylics on canvas. I chose to try two different styles for my first time to almost challenge myself, considering I'm a sketch artist. Normally my friends constantly pressure me to paint things and I finally gave into the peer pressure, with all smiles. I hope to continue to grow and progress on my craft.
