

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Anthony A. DeLaGarza

this piece is inspired by a poem I first published with PCAP years ago. In life we make some bad decisions but if we work on ourselves and try to learn from these errors we can find our true essence among the fire. As long as we put our hope in something bigger than ourselves, we can always look forward to a brighter future, especially when we have love in our hearts.
