

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Hutch

Feels good to be back for this years art exhibition. As the years go by, my artwork has gotten better. I am happy to see that there are people out in the world that enjoy my art style.

I like to draw whatever pops into my imagination. My artwork brings me great joy, and gives me an escape from this place. I am thankful for this program, keeps my spirit up lifted and gives me back some of my humanity.

I am hoping in the next few years I can bring to life some of my artwork of my graphic novel that I am slowly working on. I am still aspiring to be one of the next great comic/graphic novel artist, every day the greats inspire me, but as I said before I am not looking to be the next Van Gough, or Stan Lee, I am looking to be a better me as an artist. So I hope that you enjoy the work I've done, as I have.
