"Aspirations of the Artist"

growing up I was oldest of 12 Brothers & sisters. To A single mother. we moved so much I never had time to build friendships till I was older. I Escaped through Fantasy games, Such As Legend of Zelda (I fell in love with princess Zelda) And Final Fantasy 7 & 8. my mother also loved these games when I showed them to her. which allowed us to bond over them. this built up the Fantasy Genre to me. As I got older I saw someone doing portraits. I picked up A pencil And just tried He saw I had some talent. And showed me A few things thus starting my passion for Draw. I have no formal Art Education im All self Taught. I started to blend the fantasy with the Realism of the Portraits. Calling it "Realist Fantasy" like shot with A Black & white ^{Camera}. Taking Inspiration when I found Artist Such As Luis Roldo, Patrick J. Jones, Victoria Francis to name A few im Draw to "Dark Art" growing up As A so called "Goth" or A "Rocker" I just see Deep into it then most other work. Honestly it just looks cool too. I Inspire to Have my own manga one Day. But my Biggest Dream is to Find my name in The Book; Spectrum The Best in Contemporary Fantastic Art I Dont care if I win just be in the Book Along with other Great Artist, then Heavy metal (which I love) then one Day Draw for Magic the Gathering.

Statement About the Piece.

This is my Dark witch. Drawn from memory of A model I saw in A magazine. I love to Blend Graphite with A Single Color, it can be multiple Hue of this color, but only one color to Draw Attention to Certain Areas, like the eyes, which Add Flair & Pop. This is my 1st Attempt At Doing A good Background.

Her familiar is A Hallow from Japanese legend & A nod to the manga "Bleach". I love the eye's of this Dark witch. And the Attempt to make the symbols look Carved in to Her skin. As I say with All my Art Pieces is never "Done" But A "Work-able Finish"
