

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Jack Hall, "Reflection" Creating art of YARN,

Allows me to be at peace, giving me clarity, allowing me to control the out-come, bring-forth a sense of accomplishment.

Smiles and crys, Reflecting-back to years gone by, realizing that maybe, I should have shown more love, to my ex-wife. ITS this sorrow, that forged the creativeness side of me setting forth the idea for this particular piece of art as the love for her spilled out from the yarn, in-which I was crocheting.

A bit of philosophy in-which to live by: You should give gifts for no reason at all, never wait until there is a reason to give a gift (like - birthdays) had I not been so young when I got married, maybe this life lesson would not burn so much. Gifts should never be just an obligation.

Hoping your eyes see the love and time in this piece of art gives your heart, a jolt, making your soul wanting to be a part of something bigger than yourself, will make you want to say to that some-one special. I cherish you, I love you so much, here is something so special and unique, that was made out of pure love and so I give you this timely hand-made piece of art.

Just say that I truly love you.
