Standing Alone Doesn't Mean Not Beautiful

My Piece 'STANDING ALONE DOESN'T MEAN NOT BEAUTIFUL', WAS inspired by my daughter. she said she didn't feel beautiful cause kids at school were bullying her and so she had no friends and would eat alone at this new school. I really like to tell the most elaborate story/meanings with the simplest of images. I also write a poem to go with it. So you stand alone, why should that diminish ur glow, not all are what they show, Are you not the most, ~~Beautiful~~ <sup>creative</sup> funny ~~eloquent~~ and caring person I know, I thought so, So smile my child for individuality is the most forgotten yet sought after style. And when you light up the night, others will come, only when you realize you don't need them, Can you find love in Everything and Nothing. I really just saying when we love ourselves we no longer need approval of others and that's when ya'll have it. I hope you enjoy the piece. You can look for my Tattooshop in the near future in Traverse City Area it'll be called (3-15 Art.) Or you can find me on facebook Tattooing is my Passion and what got me into Art.
