

Keebler

364-20, 365-20

Conflicted by Addiction, Tattooing for Life

Being a tattoo artist most of my art is created based on my vision of someone else's ideas.

I am self-taught in all aspects and forms of my artwork.

I based these particular items off of my personal life experience and views of worldly issues.

I use art as a way of release and balance from the daily grind of life.