

Artist Name: HARRISON RADER

I cannot currently convey how the creation of art has positively effected me.

To say that making art changed my life does not describe what happened.

To say that the whole process saved my life would be more accurate, but still does not exactly say what paintings purpose provides me.

I paint colors and shapes I enjoy seeing, and I am humbled and grateful that other people also enjoy looking at these shapes and colors.

I am honored and grateful for the opportunity to display my creations, thank you all!
