

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: J.P. Orlewicz

This is the first acrylic I've ever done. Seventh year with PCAP, but my very first painting. I wanted to capture something ancient and powerful with something temporal and beautiful. A showing of how surreal our lives really are. in the grand scheme of things, just strange little eclectic tribes of beautiful bipeds living in an unforgiving and terrifying universe. It's something truly amazing.

In my art I always try to give life to some idea or epiphany I've had but can't put into words. Art is best for that, for that feeling, that idea, for which language fails to convey.
