

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Nino TANZINI

First thank you for taking the time to view my art. For me art is an expression and outlet. Before each piece I make a playlist and try to connect to the subject. I am painting. I started painting in 2017 and portraits have been my passion. This year I have tried to combined portraits with bright colors and marry realism with a different approach. Each piece is a growing process for me of what works and sometimes doesn't. I think as an artist when your creating the goal is that your work connects with someone on some level. My goal in the future is to connect with an organization and hopefully use my art to help bring funds and awareness to a good cause. Thank you again for taking the time to view my art and read this.
