

Artist Name: Wells #609281

Most of my days being incarcerated I always end up drawing but making model Racecars I get a lot of enjoyment because it shows how much time I put into them and I always go back to my childhood and I never had model cars or anything like that growing up and this time I had enough time to put some drawings together.