

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: D. SPENKER

Taking up drawing has always given me a mental relaxation to the stress of being in Prison for the 10 yrs. Having had so much input from PCAP Curators and Volunteers since being a participant of PCAP has added in work. Though I still have a lack of patience in myself, and my art, I do have moments where something just clicks and I love what I have drawn. Here are few, and I hope you see not only the object drawn, but the objective behind it. The message, The meaning, because I believe that art isn't only a picture to look at, but a story, no matter how simple it may appear to be.
