

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Heaven

My name is Reneco-Michell Graus. To those who know me I'm called Heaven. Prison is Hard. I didn't live a perfect life but I NEVER thought I would be in prison. Creating art has helped me find a peace of mind. Susan Brown was the first woman I spoke to in prison and knowing her has inspired me to be the best me I can be. I found a part of that in creating art. This piece has profound meaning. The words in this art are reflective of my daily life. Now I share it with all of you
