Hello, my name is Doug. I am from Flint MI, and am 37 years old. This drawing is called "Light My Way Home." It was done in pen and HB #2 pencil. I chose to draw this particular piece because it directly affects my life right now. I am going home in less than 90 days and therefore crossing a bridge to a new life. A life that after being gone for 13 years, well to be honest... I've been gone so long that I don't really know what to expect. I know what's on this side, but on the other?... It could hold any number of opportunities, things I can't even imagine. It could hold anything and that is why the other side of the bridge in the drawing disappears into the trees. I honestly don't know what's on the other side. All I know is I'm going home and that's my focus. That is the light that guides me home. On one side of the bridge is nothing, on the other you can see it disappear into a place flourishing with life. And the closer I get to that the more I feel alive. That is what this drawing is about, crossing bridges to better days and better things. Thank you and I hope you enjoyed "Light My Way Home."
