

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Robert Augustine Martinez

As a artist I'm still trying to find myself, by knowing who I am, being who I am, and accepting who I am as an artists on and off the paper. As a person I love people and one day I'll be a missionary Helping the less fortunate showing them there's something more out there for you. And if their happy I'm happy. I chose art to express my feelings when I couldn't talk about my problems. The art I'm submitting is Animation, that's what I'm good at. The process was Like, Breathe, Stretch, Shake it, Let it go. Picked up my pencil and started drawing. I chose all ways because I want to be a diverse artist. I chose Animation style because you can create Anything from your own imagination. I hope when people look at my art work, they think the same thing I thought. Not bad for a first timer.
