

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Aaron Hutchison or (Hutch)

Well it is my third P.C.A.P. that I am doing, my artwork has gotten better... Well in my eyes that is. I am happy to be doing this again, makes me feel good that people enjoy my style of artwork. As I've said before, I can still see my self becoming one of the next, comic, graphic, manga book's artist. I am slowly working on one now. I hope it pans out well. I still love to draw things out of my own imagination, what I come up with and is a complete art piece still's blows my mind that I drawn that.

I still draw what I like and love, and I know some one out there will love or like my artwork too. So I hope that you all enjoy my art work as much as I do. As I've said before, I am not looking to be the next Van Gogh, or Stan Lee, I am just looking to be a greater me, that is still inspired by the greats of old.

Thank You Kindly Hutch.
