

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: Tracy Leigh

Tracy Leigh loves to use her creativity in her singing, writing and art. She loves to do charcoal art, but after being convinced by one of U of M curators to try acrylics, she did. First Inuits led to Variance, both important aspects of her life. She is grateful to God for all He has blessed her with and everything she does in life, she wants to be for His glory.
