

Artist Statement: 27th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Dalvan Ainsworth

Every year I am more Grateful that I Started painting Art has truly Saved my life. It has brought light in a place designed to keep us in the Dark. It allows us to tell our Story, or Express how we feel not having to say a word. Art gives a voice to the voiceless, and I hope that my art is Enjoyed as much as I Enjoy doing it. In the past I said that I wanted to be one of the ~~greats~~ Greats and have my work all over the world. Now I'm just happy that if one single person views my art and does something to them. I use to paint and push myself to be better because I wanted to be known. Now I paint for the love of the Art and the Enjoyment of putting Brush to Canvas. That's really all the Enjoyment I will ever need. I hope you enjoy this painting and know that it's many more to come in the future.
