

Artist Statement: 26th Annual Exhibition of Art by Michigan Prisoners

Artist Name: THIRTYEN

My name is 13 and I love to draw elephants because to me they represent freedom and good luck. Elephants are very diverse and being such each one is as different as us (human beings). I have been drawing for several years but I still learn something new with each project I create.

Please edit your Artist Statement to the space provided.