

Artist Statement — 29th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Jason Rivera

The art I am submitting is a reflection of the way I see life and trying to bring my imagination to life. Chicano art is something I love to see and try my hardest to try and put my name in that category. I hope one day to grow in the world of art and become someone well known around the world. The reason why I choose to make art is the escape I feel when I create a new piece of art or just getting lost in the sauce when I'm in the zone of drawing. Seeing people's reaction when I present a new drawing gives me so much joy. Hope you guys like my work Thank you so much and God Bless.
