

Artist Statement — 30th Annual Exhibition of Artists in Michigan Prisons

Artist Name: Corey Hinton

Crochet pieces are so unique, due to the fact a machine can not replicate the movements of a human. That been said all handmade pieces are rare, These pieces were made with the thought of Day dreaming & Love. It's the small things in life that matters the most

Permission to Use Your Artwork, Name, and Artist Statement

PCAP and U-M will use your artwork, name, and artist statement in the exhibit to promote the exhibit to the public. They may be used in print, digital, social media, local media, press releases, and other promotional materials.

- Can PCAP and U-M use pictures of your artwork? Yes No
- Can PCAP and U-M use your Artist Statement? Yes No
- Can PCAP and U-M use your name or Artist Name? Yes No

Digital Exhibit and Archive

PCAP creates a digital exhibit that is accessible on-line format, serving as an exhibit when you can't visit in person.

- Can PCAP use pictures of your artwork in the digital exhibit and archive? Yes No
- Can PCAP use your Artist Statement in the digital exhibit and archive? Yes No
- Can PCAP use your name or Artist Name in the digital exhibit and archive? Yes No

Sharing with Others

Words: This could include using them in articles, social media posts, or sharing them with your friends.

- Can others see pictures of your artwork? Yes No
- Can others use your name or Artist Name? Yes No

Video of Exhibit

- Can we include your artwork and name or artist name in a video of the exhibit sent to all around Michigan? Yes No

Signature

If you have specific restrictions on the use of your artwork, name, or Artist Statement, please fill them out. If an original is to accompany these your restrictions, PCAP will contact you.