

Artist Name: A. R. Rose

I choose to make art because its my own personal form of expression of my emotions. When looking at any of my pieces I hope that people will not just see I have a better understand of what kind of warfare incarcerated individuals have but how all of us are like minded in certain aspects.